HOW TO USE THIS REPORT

In the pages which follow, you will see descriptions of your character traits, relationship potentials and challenges, as well as career potentials, and even more.

All or most of these sometimes intimate descriptions will be linked in some way with your past lives and your experiences in the planetary realms between lifetimes (the interlife).

Yet, you may ask, how can this information best be used?

First, HELP YOURSELF. The enclosed uplifting commentary can only be truly beneficial if you see it as a means of self-help and self-transformation. So to get the maximum practical benefit out of each page of this report, focus on connecting what you read with what is going on in your life now.

Next, LOOK FOR PATTERNS. When you see repeated references -- for instance to similar careers, pursuits or vocations -- you should consider these references seriously. They demonstrate a positive karmic connection which you now have with these same career-related potentials from past life endeavors. So, because of prior life success, these areas of expression should be easier for you to find rewarding or to succeed in, as compared with in other areas.

Also, pay close attention to REMEDIAL MEASURES. For instance, you may be given an affirmation to use in meditation (or a prayer). Or you may be given a crystal/gemstone to wear. These means of balancing out challenging vibrations can indeed be very helpful, especially if used in a hopeful manner.

Finally, this report is a synthesis of past life and planetary interlife interpretations originally given clairvoyantly by Edgar Cayce, for individuals with your same planetary patterns at birth. So in applying this report to your personal life, you should RESPECT INNER GUIDANCE --through dreams, meditation and past life regression for example -- as primary resources for this kind of information; and most important, RESPECT YOUR FREE WILL! You alone must choose and know what is really best for you.

Thank you for your order!

Your birth chart interpretation is based on the positions of the planets at the time of your birth.

Astrologer Ry Redd calculated on computer the astrology charts for hundreds of people who received readings by Edgar Cayce which contained astrologically based information. By studying these astrology charts, Ry Redd determined what planetary influences were most likely responsible for the readings by Edgar Cayce. In many cases the astrological basis of the Cayce readings appears to be very straightforward. From this information Ry Redd was able to develop, in conjunction with the computer programmers at Cosmic Patterns Software, an analysis of your birth chart as Ry Redd believes that Edgar Cayce's psychic readings would have interpreted it. Ry Redd's research effort was exhaustive and was conducted over many years, some of which was spent at the Edgar Cayce library at the Association for Research and Enlightenment headquarters in Virginia Beach, Virginia.

Your Past Life Report begins on the following page . . .

Your Sun is in an inharmonious pattern with Neptune.

You are very unusual, highly intuitive and psychic. You should be closely associated with those who study such phenomena from the spiritual viewpoint, rather than purely academically, as phenomena only. You are a dreamy soul and certainly should keep a dream journal: through your dreams, meditations and even daydream-reveries you have a natural mode of expression in which you can be a source of helpful guidance. Through recording your dream life you can warn and guide many other people, as well as yourself.

You are highly emotional, almost obsessive at times, yet very calm at others. This shifting of feelings is rooted in your difficulty in seeing clearly where your emotions are involved. This can result in self-deception upon occasion, and should be balanced by a focus on spiritual principles and ideals rather than metaphysical ideas.

While sincerity is a very important virtue to you, others do not always interpret your actions in this way. One reason for the disillusionment that comes with your likely conflict between integrity and deceitfulness is your tendency to be continually seeking that which is just beyond your grasp. This mystical, spiritual perfectionist attitude on one hand makes it difficult for projects to be completed, while on the other at times causes others to doubt both your intentions and your real abilities. In turn, you may begin to seriously doubt them too.

While going even most of your life appearing to be peculiar to other people and rarely understood, you have exceptional spiritual insight concerning soul development in the earth plane. You are one whom others may be greatly benefitted through their contact with you.

You should also stay close to water, yet not deep water like that crossed during long voyages. The water influence from Neptune will always be strong in your body-mind and will help keep you tuned to a higher spiritual consciousness.

As a writer, the kind of unusual story you might excel in would have to do with the sea on one hand, say the situation of castaways on a South Sea isle. Alternatively, you could write imaginatively about souls in a purely spiritual or holy life, such as monks, nuns, priests and others who have taken celibacy vows yet are faced with the demands of the material world.

As a remedial measure to balance out vibratorily the challenges described above, wearing the pearl would be well. [2175-1, 2533-1, 2448-2, 2746-1, 2346-1, 1261-1, 2331-1, 1434-1]

Your Sun is trine Jupiter.

Upon entering the earth plane this lifetime, you came under the positive influence of Jupiter, from your experience in that ennobling realm between lifetimes. You are likely, then, to be attractive in appearance and to have a disposition which leads you naturally to make friends while being slow to anger. Yet when anger does take hold, you are mad all the way through, and are very adept at expressing how you really feel.

Your greater success and soul development in the present will probably come through opportunities to be associated with a lot of people, especially in the business world. Meeting a lot of individuals and making friends with many of them, together with your nobility of purpose, will offer you the way through which you will reach the maximum overall spiritual growth this lifetime.

You also love learning and knowledge for their use in bettering conditions for yourself as well as others. The strongest force for good will come, however, through keeping yourself attuned to the divine within through meditation, prayer and other experiences of spirituality which will be yours. Yet in service for others will the greatest blessings come. So stay physically, mentally and spiritually fit so as to serve the more.

Bear in mind too that you have high potentials for leadership, being naturally interested in social and political matters, like who is "in" and who is "out" in terms of influence on a variety of different levels.

You are also given to successful dealings with groups, including special potentials for public speaking. In fact, you should be able rather easily to move others through your sincerity and the basic impulse of your audience. That is, you can influence others from their immediate "gut" response to how well you know and how strongly you feel about your subject. [641-1]

Your Moon is conjoined with Sun.

The shadows of your experiences in the general solar system activity of the Sun and Moon have their influence upon your relationships and other activities this lifetime. Yet these influences from the Sun and Moon are only mental urges which arise. Along with inclinations from your between life experiences in the spheres of Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus and Neptune, they express your overall soul individuality, rather than your emotional personality, which is from your previous incarnations in the earth.

Now, a conjunction of the Sun with the Moon occurs at the New Moon and a Full Moon occurs when the Moon is opposite the Sun. You chose to start a new earth life at the time of a New Moon. (If you were born just after the New Moon, you are likely to be more objective in your awareness than if born just before the New Moon, in which case you will be more subjective and reflective.)

Because the Sun rules your life or soul force, this key conjunction aspect gives you considerable vitality, with a tendency to go "all out" in whatever direction you choose to take in life.

In summary, you have risen high in your abilities, and unless there is continual application of your will respecting spiritual ideals, these very abilities you have maintained through the Sun's influence may become stumbling stones.

To insure that your abilities and experiences will instead be stepping stones for soul growth, keep your desires always in creative and constructive directions.

Above all, pray that the purposes of your heart will keep you in the direction of the Christ. "As I contemplate my associations with others, Lord, I find that I need to exercise the quality of detachment. My involvements seem literally to consume me at times, sapping my physical as well as emotional strength. I pray, therefore, to view things in a less personal way. Please help me control the tendency I have of getting completely caught up in the situations around me." [1958-1]

Your Moon harmoniously aspects Jupiter.

High ennobling qualities are yours from your soul journey in the Jupiter sphere between lives. Uplifting influences, then, arise from your experiences in both your Jupiter sojourn and in past life positions of prominence, most likely on a high, history-making level as a spiritual leader. You are then, a loving, noble soul in your interactions with others, causing them to have faith in themselves (and in you).

In fact, with your greater possibilities in giving aid in every manner, you would make a WONDERFUL minister. You would also be successful in management, administration, economics and politics. Coming from your past lives of service on behalf of others, you may guide and direct many souls this lifetime.

While you have quite a temper, you are very capable of controlling it and turning it into channels through which better influences come, both to yourself and to others.

You should also have a greater deal of the world's material goods for you to use and share with others. You are therefore one with an elevating outlook and lifestyle, and will give a lot to the development of other souls.

Drawing on the resourceful side of your akashic record -- where your soul development through caring service from past lives is stored -- you are likely to experience great blessings. While some may see you as "lucky", what is really happening is that soul links from previous compassionate incarnations are attracted to you and want to help you. This good karma will especially bring you benefits in your home life, particularly concerning your mother, with whom you have a strong, mutually beneficial bond from your deep cosmic past. [2903-1, 140-3, 2855-1]

Your Moon is in an inharmonious pattern with Neptune.

In coming into the earth's plane in the present, you came under adverse influences in Moon and Neptune. That is, Neptune, the dreamy planet of spirituality and mysticism, is adversely aspected with your Moon's emotional forces. This challenge brings you tendencies to be misled by others, as well as urges to delude yourself. The watery world of illusion and fantasy will also tend to mislead you unless you live out your unique individuality, your true soul identity, rather than in your outward personality.

Now, the Moon is the realm of the subconscious mind and past life emotions. Because of its inharmonious pattern with Neptune, you are likely to face personal challenges -- such as difficulties -- such as difficulties with delusion, deception and illusion -- largely through your insecurity and inferiority feelings.

While you are not fully conscious of these feelings, strange, unusual and mysterious people from previous lives may be attracted to you. Having high ideals and therefore trusting them --perhaps indiscreetly at times because, after all, they probably trusted you in your cosmic past --you may well experience difficulties through their deception of you.

Also, because your mercilessly high standards you may attract souls this lifetime who may simply take advantage of your vulnerability. Applying these idealistic, perfectionist standards to yourself as well as to others, discontent, complaints and frequent fantasy are likely to be the results.

Moreover, special caution should be exercised in your dealings with the opposite sex. Such souls - - again from past life links -- are the ones you are likely to be emotionally involved with and trust the most. And your parents, particularly your mother, are likely to be souls from previous lifetimes who may bring you, for instance through some form of separation, particularly painful emotional challenges at times.

Through karmically attracting these relationships from your past lives, you will be giving yourself special spiritual and emotional growth opportunities, especially if you consistently engage in serious self-analysis. For instance, study your dreams, pray and meditate, and even explore the benefits of counseling, all with the goal of knowing and accepting yourself in the deepest possible sense.

Above, all, know your spiritual ideal and try to set it in the light of the Christ. On a regular basis affirm your ideal in positive ways, such as through self-suggestion and guided imagery, to convert each of these obstacles into opportunities for greater wholeness and soul development.

Moreover, do follow through with rigorous dream and self analysis, along with careful work with clearly Christ- centered ideals. By such means as these, you can force your will to overcome your tendency toward inner passivity and laziness on one hand and, on the other, your difficulty in discerning what is fact from what is fiction. By willfully overcoming your reluctance to act positively in your search for truth you will find yourself more and more satisfied and successful in life.

Also, inclinations toward confusion which arise in your life due to the urges that come to you from your dreams, intuitions and psychic experiences -- while they provide balance and reassurance in other ways -- tend to confuse you and challenge you to know in whom as well as in what to put your trust. Once your ideal is firmly set in the Christ, just be sure to keep your activities in the area of the psychic and spiritual rather than in the occult and spiritualistic. In fact, practicing spirituality rather than spiritualism should be a helpful key to remember.

Also, while you will have the desire to transcend earthly interests, spiritualistic practices should be avoided entirely, as should excessive use of alcohol or drugs in any form.

Moreover, in your likely preoccupation with death, the spiritual world or the afterlife, use your power of reason rather than being ruled by your emotions. For instance, carefully study and try to apply the approach to reincarnation and planetary experiences between death and rebirth described in this material. Also, spirituality rather than spiritualism, self-acceptance rather than escapism, should be helpful keys to remember.

As for remedial measures to employ in your meditation and prayer life, consider using the following, either as a prayer or rephrased in your own words as an affirmation to use in meditation: "If I am emotionally vulnerable, Lord, if I am easy prey for those who would beguile or deceive me for their own selfish reasons, I earnestly pray for Your protection. Teach me how to prevent others from manipulating me by their smooth talk and apparent friendship. Help me perceive lies and falseness before a harmful situation develops. In all my involvements guide me, Lord, that I may learn to distinguish between what is fact and what is simply my own wishful thinking." [39-2, 2401-1, 1431-1, 4286-3, 2855-1]

Your Mercury harmoniously aspects Mars.

Between death and rebirth you have experienced constructive planetary-loka sojourns in Mercury and Mars that may be a helpful influence in your present life. This makes for an inquiring mind, one delving into the thoughts and feelings of others and their experiences, especially as to their mental reactions. Your mental inquisitiveness manifests on many levels of action. For instance, you can draw conclusions from the experiences of others as well as how they compare with your own experience.

From your Mars afterlife experience there is a benevolent influence in your life so that often in the disputes of others, in the wrath and anger they express toward each other, there may come from your own mental attitude peacemaking experiences even in the material business world of competition that are beneficent. Knowing how hard it is to be a peacemaker at all, much less where money and cutthroat competition are concerned, perhaps you can more fully appreciate your talents in this area. Therefore as a peacemaker under the most trying of conditions and beyond being merely inquisitive, you are a soul who is adept at -- as colloquially expressed -- "getting inside people's heads".

You have experienced the planetary consciousnesses in which you may manifest -- in your dealings, analyzing and studies of individuals and groups -- the highest purposes in the experiences of others. You are, then, one with a high ennobling, uplifted and stimulating intellectual energy. In addition, you are one given to be openly active in helping others to help themselves. Teaching and career counseling, as well as writing and computer science, are recommended as potentially rewarding pursuits. [2910-1]

Your Mercury harmoniously aspects Saturn.

Considerable mental resources are indicated from your repeated past life endeavors involving communication and education. As to your abilities, then, as seen from the pattern of your past lives, you could be an instructor through the means or channels of a speaker or writer, or one who in some way supports and encourages those who are seeking to know their closer walk with the Creative Forces, or God.

Over several lifetimes you have reached a mature level intellectually. That is, you are in a position to make creative, renewing additions to old principles constructively and in definite, positive directions. You have the ability to give a good deal of impetus to building on what has been the failure of another, whether physically, financially or mentally. Intellectually very competent and efficient, you also have great self-control and reserve.

However, you are likely to be most reserved in the area of making contacts with groups. You may continually plan out things in your mind, using a great deal of mental energy and ability, as to what would be best, but slow in carrying these plans to fruition until contacts or associations have been made through some definite channel from some outside source.

In other words, although you have above average capacity to organize and plan things out, mentally you may at times be a bit too cautious in following through on your decisions until some specific confirmation or proof offers itself. This comes from your ability to reason from any viewpoint, yet for something to be valuable to you, it must be rational and reasonable as well as practical.

You are therefore one with high mental ability who uses discretion in many ways; these are influences from the free application of your will together with your previous lives and of your afterlife soul journey in the Mercurian realm of awareness. You also have the capacity for what others would describe as "sharp trading." While you are subtle in different ways, you are also one who speaks what is on your mind at once.

In real estate sales and investments you will probably find much self-satisfaction, as well as financial rewards. However, it does not matter much in what you sell or invest, along as the commodity or investment is one in which you have faith. [3129-1, 274-1, 1001-7, 3929-1]

Your Mercury harmoniously aspects Mars.

This pattern provides you with frequent opportunities to gain or to lose in this experience, according to the activity of your will. Take heed to meet the necessary challenge!

To the good, you have a marked mental aptitude --rather than high mental abilities as such -- making you a very close observer of detail. Often the details so observed are of things or experiences that are of little value to others. This can be a positive quality if properly channeled.

To the detriment, you may be high-tempered at times, knowing what you want and why you want it without asking questions. Too much independence in your action and thought can be dangerous, leading to a prevailing mental attitude that "I know a better way to do it." Your actions will probably be in that direction quite often.

You also have the potential to control and direct many people. The anger displayed through your temper often originates from a supersensitivity to your need for power or direct control over others, especially in personal relationships where at times you lack affection. The combination of sentiment and anger results in conflicting emotions. Remember that one who is never angry is worth little, but one who is angry but does not control it is worth even less!

Your tendencies toward possessiveness and self-centeredness need to be redirected. One way to rechannel these energies is through your potential for writing, as well as in several scientific or mechanical endeavors; you are able to work with mechanical things better than most. Your ability to observe details to an unusual extent can be a valuable asset in writing. with your apparent interest in and appreciation of art, you might write in that area, whether based on psychological fact or historical fiction. If you are hesitant about your ability to write, know that the way to write is to WRITE! It can be a channel for bringing blessings to others as well as giving you greater comprehension of the purpose of mankind.

You are likely to respond favorably to the coral red gemstone. Wearing red coral next to your skin may have beneficial vibratory effects in calming your Martian energies and temperament. [369-3]

Your Venus is opposite Uranus.

You have freely chosen to face your past relationship karma this lifetime by being born when the love planet -- Venus -- was opposite in the zodiac to Uranus, the planet of extremes. By doing this, you focused your deepest attention on the challenging sides not only of your soul's interlife experiences in Venus and Uranus, but also on your personal past life relationship shortcomings. Especially from Venus' influence conditions are likely to develop in your marital relations as well as those with your family and children which make for misunderstandings and misconceptions.

These friendships and associations may often result in unexpected separations, temporary breakups and financial setbacks. If so, you usually experience these difficulties as coming from the other person, like feeling you are being misled or deceived, or that your freedom and individuality is being threatened. These challenges aid you in your spiritual growth through being opportunities in disguise to heal and forgive yourself for misdeeds done to these same souls sometime in your cosmic past.

Uranus is THE planet of freedom and independence. Therefore, regardless of the specific type of relationship involved, that is, whether the other person is a friend, lover, business associate, family member or marriage partner, a central requirement is to give them all the "space", all the personal freedom they need. At the same time, your prayer can be that your own freedom and individuality are not being sacrificed by you in order to fulfill your end of a relationship commitment. Praying and meditating along these lines, as if from unseen sources there will come help in the form of hope from faithful friends and loved ones. These reassurances will strengthen your faith, make your life more well-balanced and more worthwhile.

You are one who better than most can appreciate how true it is that no one can have too many friends. Also, few people realize as you do that no one has so many friends that they can afford to lose even one! You can indeed make a virtue --whatever the circumstances -- of being a good, helpful, hopeful friend instead of imposing on others or superimposing your will on them. In your meditations and private devotions, let your prayer be that with all your exceptional creative talents and pioneering opinions that you will try to avoid being self-preoccupied by imposing them on others.

As an opportunity to find inner harmony and peace, consider that a thoughtful deed (however small), a gentle word of encouragement spoken in the midst of an argument, a brotherly hand offered to another during a dispute are all ways to apply patience when and where it counts. Remember, as the Christ emphasized in His prophecy of these present years on the eve of His Coming, it is in patience that you will catch a glimpse of your own soul and its true growth in the presence of God. [2173-1, 2936-2, 2117-1, 1175-1]

Your Mars is conjoined with Saturn.

You are always busy, both with your hands and with your mind. Your ambition, power drive and energy will always require a great deal of direction in the spiritual rather than the material or financial area of your life.

However, because of a likely misuse in past lives, power may be denied you in this lifetime unless you put all your trust, purpose and hope in the Christ and His ways. Your tendency to worry and become blocked over situations in which others disappoint you can be cleared up by trust in His power working with you.

Now, Mars is the consciousness dimension concerned with activity and applied energy related to material things. Positive expressions of Martian energy include courage, valor and clean competitiveness. Negative expressions are usually manifested emotionally as aggression and anger.

On the other hand, Saturn is the realm of remodeling by the necessity for change. Martian energy is often restricted; for it must work within the common sense boundaries of Saturn's urge for change and growth.

This interplay of the forces of Mars and Saturn may manifest outwardly as inertia on one hand or as serious challenges raised by those with whom you are associated, especially in career and financial decisions. The problematic activities of those who oppose you are likely to involve their anger as well as your own, or drives to satisfy personal wishes.

In Saturn is therefore found many changes in your associations and activities with others, along with changes in your purposes and guiding ideals. As these somewhat traumatic changes have come in your life, your first reaction has probably been one of confusion. At these times you can always CHOOSE whether or not to become involved in problems with others which cause you to lose your hold on the real Life in you as manifested through the Christ-Consciousness.

These personal power challenges are likely to remain with you until you choose to recognize Saturn's potential for positive changes. Do this through losing your self wholly in the Christ and His purposes in always doing for others. Consider not what others can do for you, but what you might do for them. [3573-1, 1438-1]

NOTE: The Zodiac signs of the Sun and Moon are analyzed below. First they will be analyzed in the Tropical zodiac. If the positions are different in the Sidereal zodiac, then they will also be analyzed in the Sidereal zodiac. Also, if the Sun and Moon are in the same zodiac sign, then only the Sun position is interpreted; the Moon position, being the same as the Sun position, does not need to be interpreted in this case.

Your Sun is in Gemini (Tropical zodiac).

Coming as you do under the double sign of Gemini, there are likely to be two natures within you as far as your inner, subconscious urges are concerned. One of these urges is to seek to know (and this thirst for knowledge may sometimes involve questionable things or conditions, at least as far as others are concerned). The other part of this dual urge from Gemini's influence is your innate as well as outwardly manifested spiritual seeking for a greater, better and more perfect relationship with another. At times these two urges may be more in conflict than most people ordinarily experience.

Also, as in other in Gemini children this tendency toward double-mindedness at times may find expression in inclinations to change your mind and overspeculate about things. With application of your will, these inclinations can be curbed.

Now, you were probably part of European culture during the Middle Ages, when there was considerable action and adventure, for example in the continual feuding and strife among the many fiefdoms, families, tribes, castles and kingdoms comprising Europe before its present consolidation into several nation-states.

You may even have been among the gentry or upper class of France or England, attending or participating in jousting tournaments, making long journeys to the Crusades against the Muslims in Palestine, or involved with trade exchanges with the caravans going to and from India and China.

In other words, because Mercury is the planet which rules or symbolizes the essence of Gemini, overall you may have experienced in one or more of these lifetimes a sense of restlessness enduring into your present life.

Finally, centuries or even millennia earlier, you may have led a life in what has become known as Australia or on one of its neighboring South Pacific islands. [674-3, 962-1]

Your Past Life Decanates

According to an ancient Vedic astrology method still practiced in India, Past Life Planets are realms in which you sojourned between earth lifetimes. They are identified through the position of your sidereal Sun and Moon in the decanates (a decanate is a one-third division of a zodiac sign; each is ruled by a planet). Any patterns involving these Past Life Planets are therefore of special importance. Pay extra attention, then, to any sections of your Report which interpret these planets.

NOTE: If your Sun and Moon are both located in a decanate which is ruled by the same planet, then only the Sun position is interpreted; the Moon's decanate position, being the same as the Sun's, therefore does not need to be interpreted.

Your Sun is in Gemini Decanate

Your sidereal Sun is in GEMINI decanate, which is ruled by Mercury. Mercury as Past Life Planet gives you a high intellectual capacity, marked data handling or communications skills, a distinct thirst for knowledge and a natural aptitude for writing, teaching and research. A prominent Mercurian lifetime as an Egyptian or Hebrew scribe and/or teacher in colonial Asia, Africa or the early Americas is also likely.
